HALIFAX CHAPTER - October 16th.

The Halifax Chapter had to postpone their show due to "woman trouble". A gal by the name of "Donna" came to town the day before and she had plans of her own. None the less the Halifax Chapter would not be out done so they rescheduled the show and did a bang up good job of it too.

Winners were: In the Amateur section Col. Squires took top spot with the Best Amateur Bloom, a "Pauline Massengill". Col. Squires is the President of the Halifax Chapter. Mrs. J. N. Ancrum took the Best Amateur Semi-Double with a "Hex" and R. A. Bowman took the Best Double with a "Jimmy-John". He also took the Amateur Sweepstakes Award.

In the Commercial Section Carver and Morgan of Mt. Dora ran away with the show. In fact they took everything. Best Bloom of the Show - "Sandra Jean", Best Double - "Prom Girl", Best Semi-Double - "Ruth Stuart Allen" all from Carver & Morgan. They also took the Commercial Sweepstakes Award.

The Best Miniature of the Show was won by K. M. Denman with a "White Dainty". The Best Seedling was grown by McKnight's Nursery of Jacksonville. It was a "Cloud Cap".
